

RDC Southern Utah Veteran Aging-at-Home Guide

A Southern Utah planning workbook for Veterans and families trying to figure out which resource lane fits the need.

Use this as a starting map. Eligibility, enrollment, benefits, availability, and service areas can change. Confirm details directly with the organization.

☐	Emergency or crisis support

2 | SOUTHERN UTAH STARTING POINTS

Resource	Best for	Website
St. George VA Clinic	VA healthcare and local clinic services	va.gov/salt-lake-city-health-care/locations/st-george-va-clinic/
St. George Vet Center	Confidential counseling, readjustment, family and bereavement support for eligible Veterans/service members/families	va.gov/saint-george-vet-center/
Five County Area Agency on Aging	Local aging navigation, case management, benefits access, SHIP/SMP and Veteran Directed Care pathways	areaagencyonagingfivecounty.org

Resource	Best for	Website
Utah Department of Veterans & Military Affairs	State Veteran benefits and Utah Veterans Homes information	veterans.utah.gov
Southern Utah Veterans Home - Ivins	Long-term care option for eligible Veterans/spouses; confirm admission requirements directly	veterans.utah.gov/veterans-homes/

3 | VETERAN DIRECTED CARE / STAYING AT HOME

For a Veteran who wants to remain at home but needs more help with daily activities, ask Five County and the VA whether Veteran Directed Care or another VA home- and community-based program is available and appropriate.

Check	Item	Notes / status
☐	Is the Veteran enrolled in VA healthcare?
☐	Has a VA care team discussed home- and community-based services?
☐	What daily activities require help?
☐	Who is currently providing unpaid care?
☐	Is the current caregiver plan sustainable?
☐	Are there transportation, home-access, or safety barriers?
☐	Would the family benefit from local aging case management in addition to VA services?

4 | BENEFITS & MEDICARE QUESTIONS

Check	Item	Notes / status
☐	VA disability / pension questions
☐	Medicare enrollment or plan questions
☐	Medicare Savings Program / Extra Help / prescription-cost assistance
☐	SNAP / LIHEAP / other public-benefit screening
☐	Caregiver-related benefits or support
☐	Long-term-care cost / eligibility questions

Five County benefits-access staff and SHIP can help with Medicare and public-benefit navigation. VA benefit questions should be confirmed through qualified VA or accredited Veteran-service channels.
